PLACES OF TOURIST INTEREST:-

Vallakottai Murugan Temple: This is a very old temple of more than 1000 years constructed by King Bageerathan, who was ruling Sankondpuram of Ilanji Kingdom. The temple has main Raja Gopuram of five tiers with a big mandapam to front.

Vallakottai is a town near Chennai, India. It is situated on the highway between Sriperumbudur and Singaperumalkoil near Chengalpattu. The Subramaniya Swamy Temple is very famous in Vallakottai. The Temple was recently renovated. People from various places visit this temple during festival days. Frequent bus facility is available to the village from Tambaram and Sriperumbudur. The Subramaniya Swamy idol in this temple is the tallest Lord Muruga statue in India.

MEMORIAL: This Chennai attraction holds high significance in being one of the prime locations in India, given the historic moment attached to it. It is on these grounds that the prime minister of India, Rajiv Gandhi was assassinated. In here, there are various features, that throw light upon the various happenings on India. From the stone sculpture depicting India's progress at the memorial, an enormous verdant lawn lined trees and a stone inscription with the history of proceedings that happened here. The main draw of this place however, is the exact spot where Rajiv Gandhi was assassinated marked by a stone mural. This mural is highlighted by seven pillars. "The path of Light" that traces his final steps is another feature of this Chennai attraction.

ADI KESAVA TEMPLE (also called Ramanujar Temple) is dedicated to Hindu god Vishnu located in Sriperumbudur, Kanchipuram district, in the South Indian state of Tamil Nadu. Constructed in the Dravidian style of architecture, dedicated to Vishnu, who is worshipped as AdiKesava and his consort Lakshmi as Amirtagadavalli. The temple is believed to be the birthplace of Ramanuja, the exponent of Vishishtadvaita philosophy. The gold plated shrine in front of the hall of Ramanuja was built by the Maharaja of Mysore.
