A Cultural, Technical & Trade Bridge Between Japan & India

Kumamoto or Kumamon?

Japan has always had a very admirable fetish for mascots.....ranging from 'Pipo-kun' of the Tokyo Police force to 'Eeta-kun' happily promoting the National Tax Agency. But, of late, no 'yuru-chara' or 'loose character' stands out more than 'Kumamon' - the lumpy black bear mascot promoting the Kumamoto prefecture in Kyushu. Kumamon's cute visage is now plastered in everything that one can possibly come across in that region - from grocery bags to beverages, from clothes to airplanes....so much so that this mascot has exactly done what it was intended to do.....Put this prefecture on the global map!!! And a cool 100 Billion Yen in revenue...

The MG Roads and Anna Nagars now have something common (although for the short term) with JR Kumamoto Station that has been temporarily renamed as JR Kumamon- a mark of veneration of that lovely bear with its red cheeks and pouty eyes! What a refreshing idea!!!

Someone very known to me is attempting to soon go to that region to pursue her studies and if that happens, I am going to ask her to go and say hello to the station master at JR Kumamon (yes, the big mascot himself!) - from all of us at ABK-AOTS Dosokai, Tamilnadu Centre.

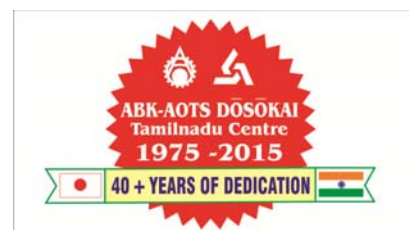

The terror map of the world has begun to bloat alarmingly in 2016 with more cities and provinces in the world being affected by such senseless violence and killings. In our own way, let us close our eyes a bit and utter a prayer for all those lovely lives cut short...to all the tribulations that our faceless and nameless fellow beings are going through around the world. And may we recollect the clairvoyant lyrics of John Lennon's 'Imagine' - so beautifully penned and so much ahead of his time

*Imagine there's no countries
It isn't hard to do
Nothing to kill or die for
And no religion too
Imagine all the people
Living life in peace...*

*You may say I'm a dreamer
But I'm not the only one
I hope someday you'll join us
And the world will be as one*

True Mr Lennon. If only those brutal killers are listening.....
